Another Combine Failure.

Says the East Liverpool correspondent of the Pottery Review: When the John R. Dos Passos pottery trust proved such a signal failure the pottery

manufacturers thought they had heard the last of trusts for several years at least, but they were doomed to disappointment, for the atmosphere had scarcely cleared when C. F. Peirce, J. H.

Franchab and Carl D. Bradley, representing Charles Berg & Company,

brokers, of Chicago, arrived in the city for the purpose of forming a trust.

Their plan differed from that of Dos

Passos in that the manufacturers were asked to take 75 per cent in stock and 25 per cent in cash for their plants and to also sign an agreement not to engage in the pottery business for a period of twenty years. The gentlemen spent several days in the city and interviewed many of the manufacturers,

but they did not meet with a very enthusiastic welcome, as the owners of the potteries expressed their disinclination to enter any more trusts, on any kind of basis, and hence the new scheme is languishing.

TO THE SEASHORE.

First Atlantic City Excursion of the Season Went via

THE PAN HANDLE THURSDAY

Afternoon, and the Baltimore & Ohio and Pan Handle will now alternate in sending excursions each Thursday—Other Excursions Being Arranged from Wheeling—Newspaper men to go Over the W. & L. E.

With the departure of the Pan Handle's first Atlantic City excursion yesterday afternoon, the summer excursion season may be said to have opened. The Baltimore & Ohio and the Pan Handle will now alternate in each Thursday sending excursions to the seashore. Each line has four.

The first excursion is usually lighter than those that follow, but Passenger Agent J. G. Tomlinson, of the Pan Handle, was very well pleased with yesterday's crowd, which was larger than he anticipated. Between fifty and seventy-five went from this city, and many others boarded the train before Pittsburgh was reached. Among the excursionists were the following: L. V. Blue, Ralph Klein and son, H. W. Hemphill, Berle Gundling, James Hughes, L. C. Heyman, Mrs. Bessie Reed, Mr. Nay, Colonel William H. Esley, Prof. H. Sheff, Miss Taylor, of Wheeling; Mrs. Hiram Smith, of Martin's Ferry; I. Blum and family, of Bellaire; C. J. Bradford, of Barnesville; Sigmund Wolf, of Martin's Ferry; J. A. Budquest, of Bridgeport.

First Mackinac Excursion.

The first Mackinac Island excursion of the season out of Wheeling will be run on Tuesday, July 18, over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling and the Detroit & Cleveland boats, under the personal supervision of Traveling Passenger Agent O. R. Wood, of this city. The train will leave Bridgeport at 2:30 p. m., and the boat will be boarded at Cleveland that night. The Wheeling Retail Grocers' Association have adopted this trip for their annual outing, and the indications that a large number of the grocers and their friends will take advantage of the opportunity.

Builders' Exchange Outing.

The Wheeling Builders' Exchange annual outing will include the trip from Wheeling to Toledo over the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, and the lake trip to Put-in-Bay in Lake Erie. The date is Saturday, July 22, and the party will be personally conducted by Traveling Passenger Agent Sam Sherman, of the Wheeling. The builders went to Put-in-Bay several years ago and voted it one of the most enjoyable outings they had ever enjoyed. A stay of a week or more at the lake resort is intended. The hotel, it is stated, has been entirely refitted for this summer's visitors.

In connection with the builders' outing, Mr. Sherman says he will make good a promise extended to the Wheeling newspaper fraternity shortly after he came to this city as the Wheeling's passenger representative—that he would escort representatives of the papers on a trip over his road. He will also take the press gang over to Put-in-Bay. It is also intended to give a side trip from Put-in-Bay or Toledo to Mackinac Island.

Wheeling People Abroad.

General Manager Sam Hugh Brockunier, of the Virginia Mining Company, whose mines are located near Rat Portage, in western Ontario, will leave for Ontario to-day, accompanied by a party of six friends. They go via the Pan Handle.

Captain R. C. Gatch, Captain John K. Booth and G. Spence, the latter of Martin's Ferry, left yesterday via the Pan Handle, for Denver. Captain Booth has valuable mining properties in Colorado, which he intends developing.

Prof. J. C. Gwynn, of Madison school, left Wednesday night, for Los Angeles, California, to attend the meeting of the National Educational Association.

A ROYAL RIDER.

Mr. Leonne Bonne and Her Beautiful Arabian Steed, "Chaska."

A combination of beautiful womanhood surmounting a magnificent specimen of horse-flesh is an eye-feast for both the gods and man. Such a combination is announced by the great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Combined Shows, announced to appear in Wheeling, Saturday, July 15.

The "womanhood" in the case will be Mr. Leonne Bonne, and the "horse-flesh" her kingly steed, "Chaska." Mr. Bonne is a European importation, and this is her inaugural appearance. Her services were secured by the foreign agents of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Combined Circuses by an arrangement with the emperor of Austria, Mr. Bonne at the time having been the riding companion of the royal family.

Mr. Bonne is acknowledged as pre-eminently the foremost exponent of high-school riding, a style of equestrianism appreciated and admired by the lover of the park and saddle horse. Mr. Bonne is the quintessence of ease and grace as a reinswoman and majestic in her carriage on her lordly "Chaska." The horse, by the way, was presented to Mr. Bonne by the late emperor. He is a magnificent jet black Arabian animal, and as remarked at the outset, the combination of Mr. Bonne and her horse "Chaska" is one to incite admiration and enthusiasm.

There Are Poor Storekeepers

Good storekeepers—better and best—the same way be said of store stocks and values. Those who trade here are the store's best advertisers. Ask any good dresser or anyone whom you know to be economically inclined—if they deal here they'll recommend you to; if they've never tried us they cannot tell what they've missed. You'll not find a single enemy of this store—its methods—its prices—is there another in town can truthfully say the same?

We are in the business for profit—there's profit in making friends—friends are only secured by square, fair dealing.

Noble sentiments in business wouldn't have much commercial value unless accompanied by tact, talent and facilities. Judge for yourselves whether we have our share. Judge by general appearance—by comparison, by stock, style and prices.

Make any test you see fit—we'll warrant you'll select our store. Money back protects you here and demonstrates our self-confidence.
